QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: Where do we register for the 2022 Teenage baseball program?

A: Your local league will continue to register players for the Teenage divisions.

Q: How much are the registration fees?

A: This is determined by your league or district. Players selected for Competitive Stream teams will pay an additional fee.

Q: When will teams be formed?

A: This will be determined by your league or district based on available indoor evaluation times and other organizational requirements.

Q: How do players indicate they are interested in Competitive Stream travel teams?

A: Each league will have a question on their registration form regarding this, simply check YES to being interested.

Q: Can you advise what the commitment expectations are for the Competitive Stream travel teams?

A: Players and their parents are expected to fully commit to an expanded schedule of games and practices as well as provincial travel.

Q: Can you advise what the Competitive Stream travel team schedules will look like?

A: Generally, weekend games in locations such as, but not limited to: Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat.

NOTE: Local weekday games may also be scheduled for travel teams

Q: What happens if a player is not selected for Competitive Stream travel team or is only interested in playing in the Community Stream?

A: They are placed in the Junior AA, Senior AA or Intermediate division, based on their league age.

Q: I see league age 13 year olds could be placed in three different divisions, why is this?

A: League age 13 year olds are eligible to play in Intermediate, Junior and Senior divisions, therefore they will be placed appropriate to skill level.
